	Kotěra Hall	Gočár Hall	Janák Hall	Hall 112 & 113	Hall 201	Hall 202	Hall 152 / Poster Session Hall
Wednesday 13. 9. / Morning
Opening: 9.00 to 9.30 Keynote 1: 9.30 to 10.30 Discussion: 10.30 to 11.00 Coffee break: 11.00 to 11.30	Opening The Many Cradle of Narratology: From Shklovsky's "Defamiliarization" to Hrdukovsky's "Semantic Gesture" Wolf Schmid (Universität Hamburg)
Panels 11.30 to 12.10 Discussion: 12.10 to 12.30		FILM NARRATIVE AND NARRATION Making sense of film narrative: The Kuleshov effect revisited Colin Davis (Royal Holloway, University of London) "Under an incredible microscope": Revising S. Ekenstein's and J. Joyce's conceptions of structure Ludmilla Comuzzi (Saratov National Research University, Baloshov Institute)	NARRATIVES IN COMMUNICATION Master narrative, genre and the paradox of tellability Matti Hyvärinen (University of Tampere) Back to the structure: Deconstructing illness narratives Marianosa Lodda (University of Eastern Piedmont)	NARRATOLOGICAL APPROACHES TO RELIGIOUS NARRATIVES The stories of the Hebrew Bible: Four structural features that challenge readers Gregor Anderson (Örebro University) The narrativization of Talmudic literature's basic structures: Diachronic narratology, computational perspectives Itay Marienberg-Milikowsky (University of Hamburg)	DRAMA, THEATRE, AND AUDIONARRATOLOGY The art of deception: Knowledge distribution in narrative and drama Daniel Schäbler (Friedrich-Alexander University Erlangen-Nürnberg / University of Wuppertal) Diegetic theatre and Iranian contemporary drama Parastoo Mohebbi (Islamic Azad University)	EXPERIMENTAL HUMANITIES PANEL Narrative retelling and figuration in the 19th-century novel Elizabeth Ryba (Indiana University) This is why you should attend this talk: Clickbait and the reception of news stories Tobias Hermans (Ghent University)
Wednesday 13. 9. / Afternoon
Panels 13.30 to 14.30 Discussion: 14.30 to 14.45 Coffee break: 14.45 to 15.10		FILM NARRATIVE AND NARRATION More than three hours...? Research of (Hollywood's) narrative principles in very long films Radomír D. Kokeš (Masaryk University, Brno) Narrating the missing Lyubov Bugaeva (Saint Petersburg State University) Narrativity and cine-city narratives: Prague in film Irina Malinkaua (Vilnius University)	NARRATIVES IN COMMUNICATION Beyond the soldier's tale? Strong narrativity and trauma in the study of military memoir Matthew Voice (University of Sheffield) "I think I'm getting a picture of why I struggled with the book": Looking for patterns in book club discourse Megan Milota (University of Antwerp / University Medical Center Utrecht) Beating illness into shape: Structure and the illness narrative Sjaard-Jeroen Mantendar (University of Groningen), Emma Frances O'Connor (Sheffield Hallam University)	NARRATIVE, PERSONAL RELEVANCE, AND THE READER'S BOUNDARIES Personal relevance in narrative reading Anežka Kuzmičová (Stockholm University), Katalin Bálint (Tilburg University) Cosmic narratives, personal relevance? Marco Caracciolo (Ghent University) The relevance of irrelevance and the greatest stories never told Dan Irving (Stony Brook University)	DRAMA, THEATRE, AND AUDIONARRATOLOGY Entrance of the radio play into the narrative culture of Czechoslovakia between the world wars Aleš Merunau (Institute of Czech Literature, Czech Academy of Sciences) Alte Jongotte's literary radio play Der Herr verlangt sein Hut (1988): New perspectives on the representation of speech and consciousness Evelien Verschueren (Ghent University) The problem of double narrative: Program music in literature Giedrė Smolskaitė (Vilnius University)	RECONSIDERING NARRATIVE ELEMENTS Narrative structure in comparative perspective: Temporality, spatiality and unity Huajuy Luo (Beijing University of Chemical Technology) A narrator with personal needs: Narrative drive in Salinger's "Seymour; An Introduction" (1959) David Stromberg (Hebrew University of Jerusalem) Chronological order and the narrative present Eyal Segal (Tel Aviv University)
Panels 15.10 to 16.30 Discussion: 16.30 to 16.50 Coffee break: 16.50 to 17.10		EMERGING VECTORS OF NARRATOLOGY: AN OVERVIEW Cultural and historical perspectives Wolf Schmid (University of Hamburg) Narrative as communication Per Krogh Hansen (University of Southern Denmark) Narrative turn and frameworks for narrative theory Philippe Roussin (Centre de recherche sur les arts et le langage, CNRS/EHESS) Cognitive, evolutionary and logical contexts John Pier (University of Tours / Centre de recherche sur les arts et le langage, CNRS)	MULTIPERSPECTIVITY AND CULTURAL MEMORY Trojan memories: On the problem of having alternate endings in medieval literature Sabine Heidi Walther (University of Copenhagen / University of Bonn) On the politics of form: Narrative reliability and colonial discourse in Camus' L'Etranger Marta Puxan-Oliva (University of Barcelona) Commentology Yohong Ning (Beijing Language and Culture University)	STORY FORMS AND MODELS Can small stories research be interesting in the research on literary narratives? Sylvie Patron (University of Paris Diderot) Theorizing the whodunit Göran Rossholm (Stockholm University) Narratological model and historical narrative Ivan Jandžović, Juraj Šuch (Matej Bel University, Banská Bystrica) Genre blending in tragicomedy: The Winter's Tale Michael Sinding (Friedrich-Alexander University Erlangen-Nürnberg)	CHARACTERS AND MINDS Minding fiction: Real world concepts and fictional minds Filip Kvitcko (Charles University) On social minds in fiction: A structural, rhetorical, and sociological approach Natalya Bekhta (University of Helsinki) Individual differences in characters – insights from building a generative model Leonid Berov (Osnabrück University) The structure of personal narrative and the problem of the literary character Katarzyna Filutowska (University of Warsaw)	HISTORICAL NARRATOLOGY: AUTHOR AND NARRATOR REVISITED Narrator-less narrative and reception in antiquity Stefan Tilg (University of Freiburg) Author, narrator and narrative experience in medieval literature Eva von Contzen (University of Freiburg) The orator, the poet and narratorial play in early modern narrative theory and practice Rafael Orgis (University of Neuchâtel / University of Freiburg) Disrupting immersion: Reader and narrator in Robinson Crusoe and Gulliver's Travels Hannah Blincko (University of Freiburg)
Keynote 2: 17.10 to 18.10 Discussion: 18.10 to 18.30 After 18.30: Welcome drink	Visualizing the narrative engine: What diagrams can tell us about the functioning of narrative Marie-Laure Ryan (University of Colorado, Boulder)
Thursday 14. 9. / Morning
Panels 9.00 to 10.20 Discussion: 10.20 to 10.40		TRADITION AND METAMORPHOSES OF THE PRAGUE SCHOOL The Prague School and narratology Ondřej Sládek (Institute of Czech Literature, Czech Academy of Sciences) The Prague School between worlds, illusions, and minds Bohumil Fořt (Institute of Czech Literature, Czech Academy of Sciences) Functionalism of the Prague School and beyond: Narratives as complex structures Michal Kříž (Palacký University Olomouc)	BETWEEN VISUAL STRUCTURE AND RECEPTION "COMICS, INFOGRAPHICS, HISTORY PAINTINGS AND CARTOONS" Visual narrative grammar. The structure of sequential images Neil Cohn (Tilburg University) The base-narrativity of "manga-esque" infographics and pictograms: Contemporary Japanese public spaces and narrative comprehension Lukas R.A. Wilde (University of Tübingen) Communicating a story with one picture: Ordinary language and empirical testing vs. the skeptic Klaus Speidel (University of Vienna)	POSTMODERN NARRATIVE STRATEGIES Metafiction, metanarration, and metacharacter in Lydia Davis's The End of the Story James Harker (Bard College Berlin) From metadiscourse to "diatext": Towards the narrative mediality of postmodern literature Tomáš Jiraš (Palacký University Olomouc) The rhetoric of form: Intertextuality as a rhetorical strategy in the fiction of David Mitchell Noelle Hewetson (University College Dublin) Mise en abyme: Discovering semantic varieties Larissa Muravieva (Higher School of Economics, Nizhny Novgorod)	NARRATIVE & EXPERIENCE Brion Gysin, cut-ups, and "peinture contemporaine": Narrating experience Daria Baryshnikova (Bielefeld University) Narrative empathy in novels of social criticism: Strangely effective Ellen Beyaert (Ghent University) Storytelling and the perceptions of the embodied mind: Dynamic narrative structures in Mark Z. Danielewski's House of Leaves Lilla Formasi (University of Szeged) Hallucinatory fiction and the phenomenological dominant John Foxwell (Durham University – Hearing the Voice)	POSSIBLE WORLDS AND INTERPRETATION Narrative worlds: Between autonomy and interdependence Moshe Simon-Shoshan (Bar-Ilan University) Multiple possible worlds and authorial control in Edgar Allan Poe's "Ligeia" Wanlin Li (Peking University) Possible worlds in the nineteenth-century Brazilian novel: Machado de Assis's Esaú e Jacó Marcos Flamínio Peres (University of São Paulo)
Panels 11.10 to 12.10 Discussion: 12.10 to 12.30		TRADITION AND METAMORPHOSES OF THE PRAGUE SCHOOL Narrative and the question of values and evaluation: Can we be Greimas' and Mukařovský's heirs? Liesbeth Korthals Altes (University of Groningen) Marxist-Leninist narratology? Soviet literary theory penetrating the Czech literary criticism in 1950s František A. Poďhajský (Institute of Czech Literature, Czech Academy of Sciences) The influence of the Prague School on Milan Kundera's essays Ida Llop (University of Barcelona)	TELEVISION AND VIDEO "And the moral of the story is...": Narrative scaffolding in television series Christian Stenico (University of Innsbruck) Adapting structuralist models to narrativised video Joshua Parker (University of Salzburg) "That's strange. All of a sudden, I don't quite feel like myself": Character theories and the unstable animated cartoon star Erwin Feyersinger (University of Tübingen)	INSIDE AND OUTSIDE IN NARRATIVE AND THEORY Experiencing the weak house: Modernist interior descriptions beyond domesticity Laura Oulanne (University of Helsinki) Folding city: Environmental change, ontological instability, and urban crisis in 21st century literary fiction Lasse Amvel (University of Tampere) Aerial description and environmental imagination in narrative landscapes David Rodrigues (Stony Brook University)	FROM THE POINT OF VIEW OF MEMORY: FOCALISATION AND TEMPORALITY IN POLISH NARRATIVES AND THEIR THEORIES Phenomenology, structuralism, and direct realism – perspectives on past from inside and outside Michał Mrugalski (University of Tübingen) Shifting points of view in multipersoned narratives – between the structuralist and cognitivist approaches Joanna Jeziorska-Hałoń (University of Warsaw) Time and memory: The phasic structure of the work of literary art in Roman Ingarden's phenomenology in view of Francisco Varela's neurophenomenology and Shaun Gallagher's front-loading phenomenology Danuta Ulicka (University of Warsaw)	COUNTER-NARRATIVE AND METAPHOR: EXPRESSING RESISTANCE AND IDENTITY IN ORGANIZATIONS, INSTITUTIONS, AND ILLNESS-DISCOURSE Metaphor as carrier of organizational resistance when materialized as counter-narrative Marianne Wolff Lundholt (University of Southern Denmark) Between education and stagnation: Counter-narrative and metaphor in second language students "identity-making" at adult education centers Anke Piekut (University of Southern Denmark) Illness and heroics: On counter-narrative and counter-metaphor in the discourse of serious illness Per Krogh Hansen (University of Southern Denmark)
Thursday 14. 9. / Afternoon
ENN bussines meeting: 13.30 to 14.30 Keynote 3: 14.30 to 15.15 Discussion: 15.15 to 15.35 Coffee break: 15.35 to 15.50	ENN bussines meeting Narrative and dynamic structures Marina Grishakova (University of Tartu)
Panels 15.50 to 16.50 Discussion: 16.50 to 17.10 Coffee break: 17.10 to 17.30		ESTRANGEMENT AT 100: SHKLOVSKY AND NARRATOLOGY TODAY Speculative fiction and the difficulty of form Merja Polvinen (University of Helsinki) Estrangement, extended cognition and probability design: Revisiting the notion of "priiom" Karin Kukkonen (University of Oslo) How to do things with defamiliarisation Stefan Iversen (Aarhus University)	DEFINITIONS: THEORETICAL AND PRACTICAL CHALLENGES AND CONSEQUENCES OF DEFINING NARRATOLOGICAL CONCEPTS Why and how to define narratological concepts Tom Kindt (University of Fribourg) „What is unreliable narration?" Some thoughts on misguided questions in the context of defining narratological categories Janina Jacke (University of Hamburg) Defining the evaluation of definitions: Towards the automation of narratological analyses Evelyn Gius (University of Hamburg), Marcus Willand (University of Stuttgart)	CONTEMPORARY STORY-CRITICAL NARRATOLOGY: EXPERIENTIALITY AS POTENTIAL AND PROBLEM I The return of the exemplum: Viral "true stories" and a critical recontextualization of experientiality Maria Mäkelä (University of Tampere) Narrating or posing in first person? The heroic self in ecocritical documentary film Tytti Rantanen (University of Tampere) Who did what? Agency in the anthropocene Juha Raipola (University of Tampere)	THE CYCLE AS NARRATIVE STRUCTURE Loosing the plot: Cycles and weak narrativity in poetry about bipolar disorder Lasse Gammelgaard (Aarhus University) A unity in diversity? "Doing Europe" and the construction of coherence in short story cycles by Adam Thorpe and David Szalay Janine Hauthal (Vrije Universiteit Brussel) The novellistic cycle as a site of narrative experimentation Lars Bernaerts (Ghent University)	BYZANTINE NARRATIVES: TEXTS, CONTEXTS AND APPROACHES Early Byzantine narrativity Tomás Fernández (Conicet – University of Buenos Aires) Using storyworlds in reading Byzantine historiography AnnaLinden Weiler (Uppsala University) Metamorphosis of the Bible: The use of metalepsis in early Byzantine hymns Ulf Hahnsgaard Eriksen (Uppsala University)
Panels 17.30 to 18.30 Discussion: 18.30 to 18.45		FROM RUSSIAN FORMALISM TO STRUCTURAL AESTHETICS Orientations, intentions, intonations in Boris Eikhenbaum's theory of literary form Stefania Irene Sini (University of Eastern Piedmont) The problematic status of the aesthetic function of language and its relation to historically developed standards Beatriz Penas-Ibáñez (University of Zaragoza) Arguing from aesthetic appreciation: A blind spot in structuralism? Tobias Klauk, Tilmann Köppe (University of Göttingen)	LIFE WRITING AND AUTOBIOGRAPHY Truth and fiction in writing about oneself Alexandra Effe (Giessen University) Life writing as fiction[al] writing: Challenging the structures and ethics of biography in Emmanuel Carrère's L'Adversaire and Limonov Filippo Pennacchio (IULM University, Milan) Personal life story and narrative schemes in autobiography Flóra Soukupová (Charles University)	CONTEMPORARY STORY-CRITICAL NARRATOLOGY: EXPERIENTIALITY AS POTENTIAL AND PROBLEM II Unjustified narratives: Detection of plot, events, and experientiality as (bad) interpretive choices Samuli Björninen (University of Tampere) Narratological approaches to the manosphere – methodological possibilities and challenges in the study of internet communities and their texts Matias Nurminen (University of Tampere) How the experiential turn made narrative medicine possible Laura Karttunen (University of Tampere)	THE CYCLE AS NARRATIVE STRUCTURE Repetition and narrative progression: From Wagner to Netflix Alberto Godioli (University of Groningen) Love and duty: From chivalric poetry to the superheroes TV series Mara Santi (Ghent University) The sense of an ending: On the role of epilogues in long-form series Giulia Fabiocco (University of Perugia)	BYZANTINE NARRATIVES: TEXTS, CONTEXTS AND APPROACHES The use of dialogue in the metaphrastic and premetaphrastic vitae of St. John Chrysostom Elisabeth Schiffer (Austrian Academy of Sciences) "Such were my dread sufferings, almighty crowned lord": A tentative pragma-narratological analysis of Ptochoprodromos, I Marietta Kulhánková (Masaryk University, Brno) Narrative vignettes in late Byzantine political rhetoric: Absence of history? Florin Leonte (Palacký University Olomouc)
Social dinner: 20.30
Friday 15. 9. / Morning
Panels 9.00 to 10.40 Discussion: 10.40 to 11.10 Coffee break: 11.10 to 11.40		ISSUES IN THE FILM NARRATION The paradox of embodiment and narrative schemata in 360° spherical cinema Aigars Caplāns (University of Liepaja / RISEBA University, Riga) The cinematic mode in fiction Marco Bellardi (University of Birmingham) Loop structures in film (and literature): From classical to complex narration Matthias Brütsch (University of Zurich) The mind's eye: Focalization in post-modern films Robert Galletly (Thousand Oaks, USA)	PICTORIAL NARRATIVITY, PHOTOGRAPHS How single pictures communicate stories: An experimental approach Klaus Speidel, Lise Meitner (University of Vienna) Pictorial narrativity and metaphor performance: The doubly-deictic gaze in a Renaissance portrait María-Ángeles Martínez (Complutense University of Madrid), Blanca Escájedo-Mujic (Rey Juan Carlos University, Madrid) Re-structuring structure of reading: Korean webtoons, narratological and technological innovations, and theory of mind Hyesu Park (Bellevue College, USA) The monster analogy: A Frankensteinian approach to characters, cognition, and comics Eva Varis (University of Jyväskylä) The realistic, the imaginary and the use of photos in narrative texts: Art Spiegelman's Maus and J. M. Coetzee's "Vietnam Project" Feng Duan (Fudan University, Shanghai)	NARRATOLOGY: PAST AND PRESENT Narratology: Towards a "rhizomatic" realignment approach Eva Sabine Wagner (University of Cologne) Narratology in the changing (natural) environment Markku Lehtimäki (University of Eastern Finland) Policing storyworlds: The history of unspoken narratological power politics Sebastian Domsch (University of Greifswald) Elements for a redefinition of narratology research: Analysis of the anti-Aristotelian model of Nietzsche's Birth of Tragedy Antonino Soro (Sorbonne Nouvelle University) Narratology and (not so) distant readings Daniel Candel Bormann (University of Alcalá)	READING AND RECEPTION Beyond the question of simply deleting: "Byproducts" of deastrization in the Penguin Readers edition of Gulliver's Travels Haifeng Hui (Huazhong University of Science and Technology) The literary anxiety complex: Story interest in British horror fiction Austin J. J. Ness (Northern Illinois University) An inventory of miracles: Central European magical realism from the perspective of classical and unnatural narratology David Szalbirt (Hungarian Academy of Sciences) Metamorphosis of representation and referentiality in Orhan Pamuk's The Museum(s) of Innocence Mustafa Zeki Çırakli (Karadeniz Technical University)	MODALITIES OF NARRATIVE STRUCTURE AND STORYTELLING Making it new with narratology: A new look at the experimental narrative fiction Bartosz Lutostański (Independent scholar, Warsaw) The untold stories in Chekhov's narrative Andrey Agratin (Pushkin State Russian Language Institute, Moscow) Fractal patterns in Nabokov's Ultima Thule Valery Timofeev (Saint Petersburg State University) The narrativity of the monuments of Berlin in novelistic representations by Ian McEwan and Gail Jones Barbara Puschmann-Nalenz (Ruhr-Universität Bochum) Reverse perspective and eclectic as narrative techniques in modern Amerindian prosaic texts Svitlana Volkova (Kiev National Linguistic University)	POSTER SECTION "I may have been a lousy painter, but what a collector I turned out to be!" Kim Gorus (St Lucas School of Arts Antwerp) Designing fictional worlds: synchronous and asynchronous creation in entertainment narratives André Conti Silva (University of Rio Grande do Sul) Sounds as narrative technique in the film The Snow Queen Sanna Quick (University of Turku) Mahler's hammer or the narrativization of an "irrational" sound: A transmedial perspective on musical narrativity Karl Katschthaler (University of Debrecen) Character structure and narrative ethical judgments: An exploration of pattern in a selected corpus of Oscar Wilde Mahdiyeh T. Khabbaz (Ghent University) The defense of fiction in Philip Roth's The Counterlife Adriano Schwartz (University of São Paulo) Post-Yugoslav literature as an assemblage: Paranarrative negotiation of the temporal terms Eva Simčić (University of Zagreb) The modernist canon: Mapping the Romanian novel (first half of the XXth century) Alina Bako (Lucian Blaga University of Sibiu) Unpacking the Toolkit: Narratology on the Curious Case of Gillian Flynn's Gone Girl Ken Ireland (The Open University) To what should we compare Lotta Lotas' novel Den svarta solen? A discussion of narratology from the standpoint of comparative literature Tommy Sandberg (Örebro University) Spatiality of fictional narrative: The model of multivariate analysis Richard Zmelík (University of Wrocław)	9.00 to 10.30 Coffee break: 10.30 to 11.00 11.00 to 12.15
Panels 11.40 to 12.20 Discussion: 12.20 to 12.30		TRANSMEDIAL NARRATOLOGY Multimodal and interdisciplinary research in non-fiction transmedial narratology Nicole Basaraba (Trinity College Dublin) Frame-person dualistic narrator across media: A discussion on general narratology Changzai Wang (Southwest Jiaotong University)	PICTORIAL NARRATIVITY, PHOTOGRAPHS Presenting documentary photographs as fiction: The Family of Man exhibition (1955–) and its narration Yoko Tsuchiyama (Centre de recherche sur les arts et le langage, EHESS) A Battle of Terms in Transmedia: A narratological approach to the motive of terrorism in satiric French speaking novels, films and Comics Laura Fuchs-Eisner (University of Innsbruck)	STORYTELLING Cognitive structure and new reading: Virginia Woolf's To the Lighthouse Hong Jiang (Beijing Foreign Studies University) Translational narratology: Toward devising a model for translating "point of view" and "free indirect discourse" through "delais", "modality", and "transitivity" in three Persian translations of Woolf's To the Lighthouse Abolfazl Horri (Arak University)	MIMESIS, FICTIONALITY, AND REPRESENTATION Narrative metalepsis: The original mimetic relation Julian Hanebeck (University of Wuppertal) Mimetic representation – the encounter of the phenomenological and cognitive perspectives in Tempo et récit (1983–1985) by Paul Ricœur Klára Kudlová (Institute of Czech Literature, Czech Academy of Sciences)		11.00 to 12.15
Friday 15. 9. / Afternoon
Keynote 4: 13.30 to 14.30 Discussion: 14.30 to 14.50 Coffee break: 14.50 to 15.10	New Dual Narrative Movement Can Metamorphose or Extend Narratology Dan Shen (Peking (Beijing) University)
Panels 15.10 to 16.10 Discussion: 16.10 to 16.25 Coffee break: 16.25 to 16.45		TRANSMEDIAL NARRATOLOGY Towards the conceptualization of "discourse" space Cristina de Lucas (Independent scholar, Segovia) Towards a narratology of complexity: Structure and readers in the digital age Federico Pianzola (University of Milan-Bicocca)	NARRATIVE THEORY AND METHODS Narrative as a structure and as a practice Hanna Meretoja (University of Turku) Narrative, contingency and singularity José Angel García Landa (University of Zaragoza) Corpus methods in narratology applied to a mixed-media case study: The Bachmann literary casting show Gunther Martens (Ghent University)	POETRY AND NARRATIVITY The eventfulness of non-events in modernist poetry: T. S. Eliot's The Waste Land and Bertolt Brecht's "Vom armen B. B." Peter Hühn (University of Hamburg) Interacting modes: Narrativity and lyricality in C. C. Kriigelmann's experimental novel Homuncull Reiki Janssens (Ghent University) Narratology into poetry: A test case Eva Zettelmann (University of Vienna)	MIMESIS, FICTIONALITY, AND REPRESENTATION Narrative representation and fictionality in performative media Jan Horstmann (University of Hamburg) Unnaturalness within mimesis: How far can unnatural narratologies account for Paul Auster's The Music of Chance? Mengni Kang (Nanyang Technological University) Metamorphosis of representation and referentiality in Orhan Pamuk's The Museum(s) of Innocence Mustafa Zeki Çırakli (Karadeniz Technical University)	NARRATOLOGY ACROSS BORDERS: TRANSNATIONAL AND COMPARATIVE PERSPECTIVES The collective voice in the Hungarian narrative tradition Péter Hajdu (Institute for Literary Studies of Hungarian Academy of Sciences) Unnatural narratives in traditional Chinese ghost tales Shang Biwu (Shanghai Jiao Tong University) Theatricality in Thomas Carlyle's narrative of history Songlin Wang (Ningbo University) Hong Chen (Shanghai Normal University)	Narrative T-shirts Hamid Asiayee (Osnabrück University) Narratives in science as covert prestige indicators Zinaida Shelkovnikova (National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine) Stories that matter: Towards a cognitive analysis of transmedia storytelling Karl Jaagola (University of Tartu)	15.10 to 16.00 Coffee break: 16.30 to 16.45